

The aim of Inter Union Junior Football Club is to create a warm & safe environment for youngsters to learn and enjoy the art of football. To enable us as a club to fulfill this aim, we must abide by rules and know our boundaries. Therefore, Inter Union Junior Football Club abides & adheres to a code of conduct for managers, players & spectators alike.

Mangers code of conduct

- All managers & coaches must treat all players equally and gain mutual trust of each player
- Always put the well-being & safety of each player above all other agendas. If a player is injured in anyway then he must not take part in any match or training sessions.
- Always follow club rules & regulations as laid down by the committee
- Managers must guide & encourage players to take responsibility for their own behavior & performances within the team
- Always ensure that the training & methods are appropriate for the players age & ability to promote self esteem within the players & reward with positive encouragement at all times
- Always let the players know exactly what is expected of them during a training session and within competition to save disappointment from both parties
- Always show respect towards the opposition and lead by example. Never condone misconduct by any player or tolerate or use foul or abusive language

I have read & understand this code of conduct and agree to abide by its statement
